

Life in His Name

and that by believing you may have life in his name.

-John 20:31

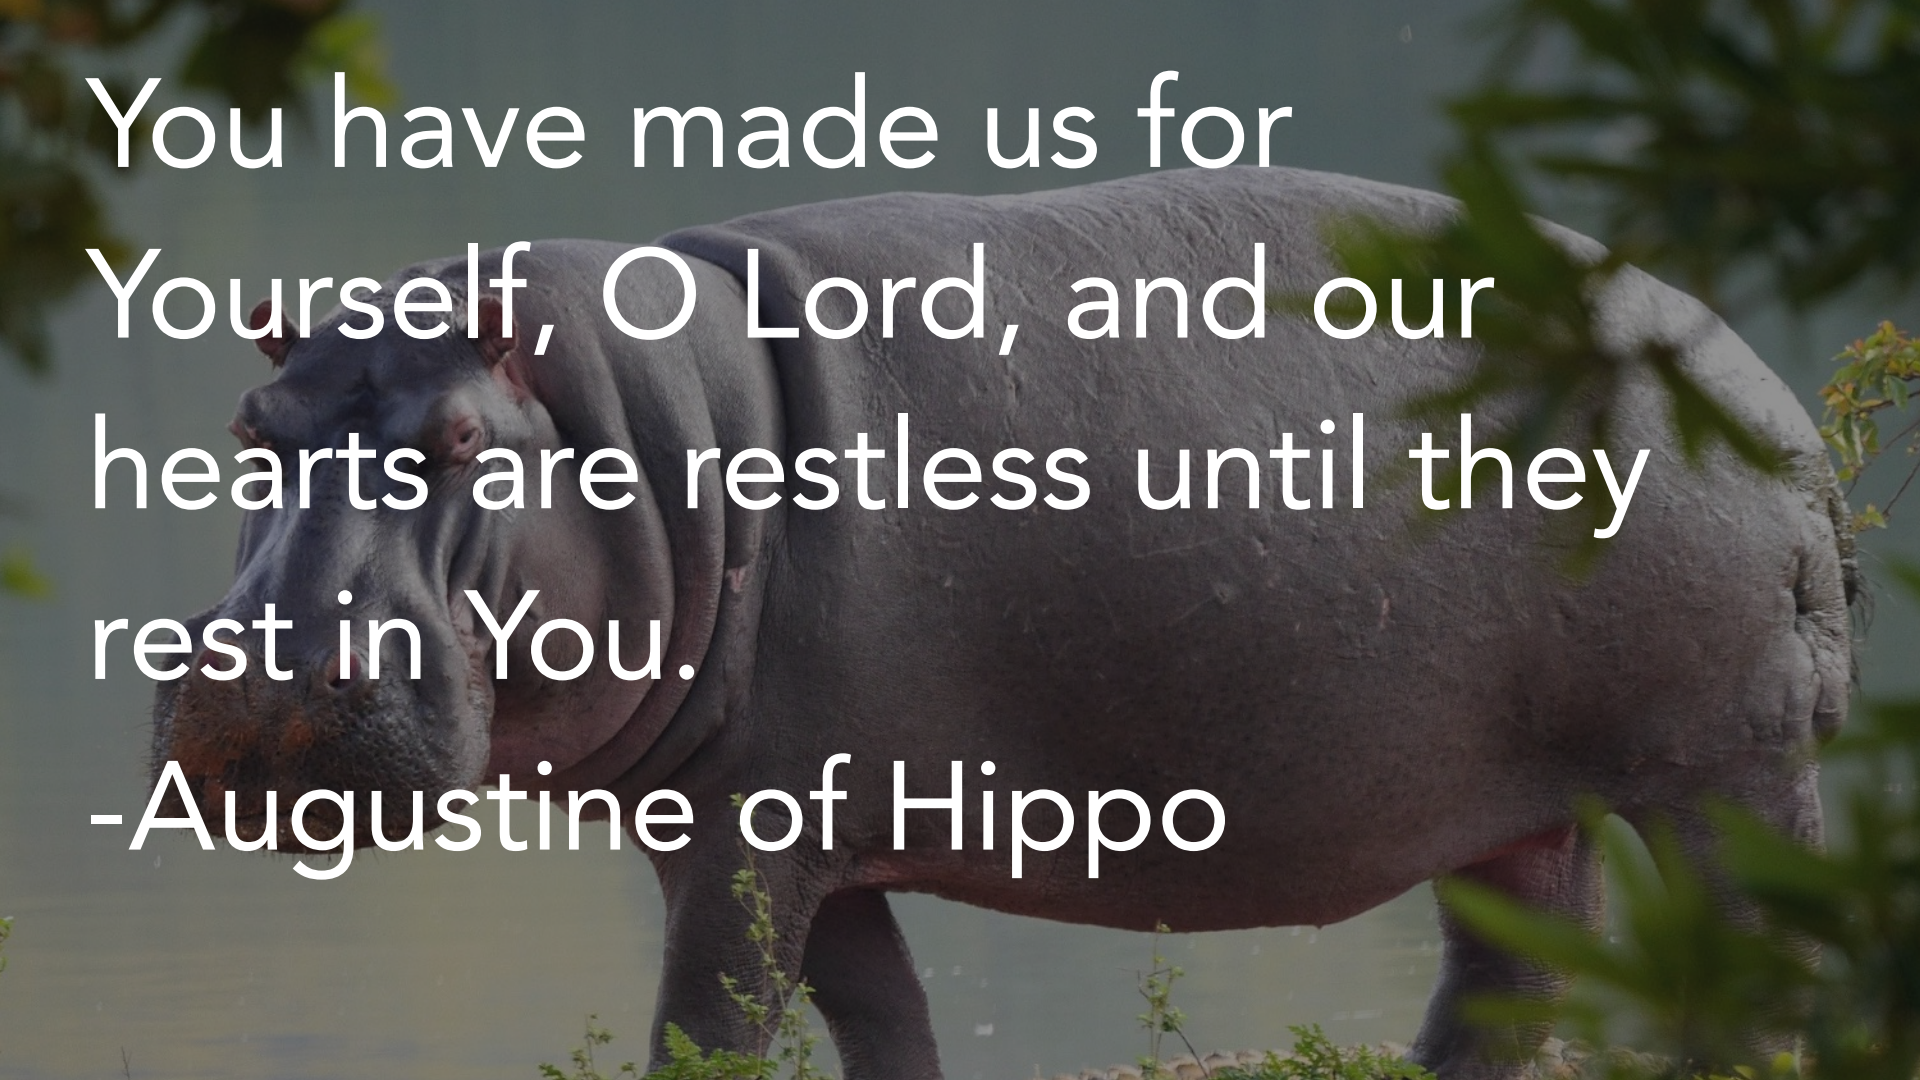

A silhouette of a person with their arms raised in a gesture of praise or joy, set against a vibrant sunset sky with orange and purple hues. The person is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the frame. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.

Satisfied Too Easily

John 6:1-15

A silhouette of a person jumping joyfully against a sunset sky. The person is in the center-right of the frame, with arms outstretched and legs bent in mid-air. The background is a warm, orange and yellow sky with scattered clouds. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Do we sometimes settle for less than what Jesus came to give?

A hippopotamus is the central focus of the image, shown in profile facing left. It has thick, greyish-brown skin and large, rounded ears. The background is a soft-focus natural setting with green leaves and branches. The text is overlaid in white, sans-serif font.

You have made us for Yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You.

-Augustine of Hippo

How do we press into the Giver... in whom real life is found?

1. Don't Settle

For just relief.

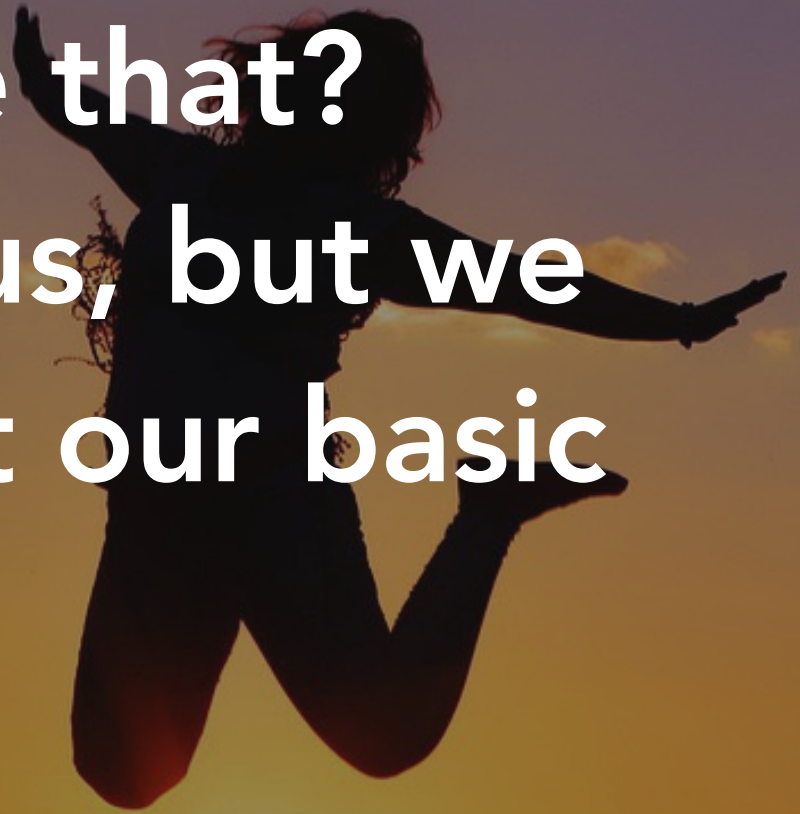

John 6:1-4

Do we want to be with Jesus because of who He is...

Or because of what He does?

Are we ever like that?
God has saved us, but we still worry about our basic survival needs?

Is Jesus the new Moses?

Yes... in a manna of speaking.

2.

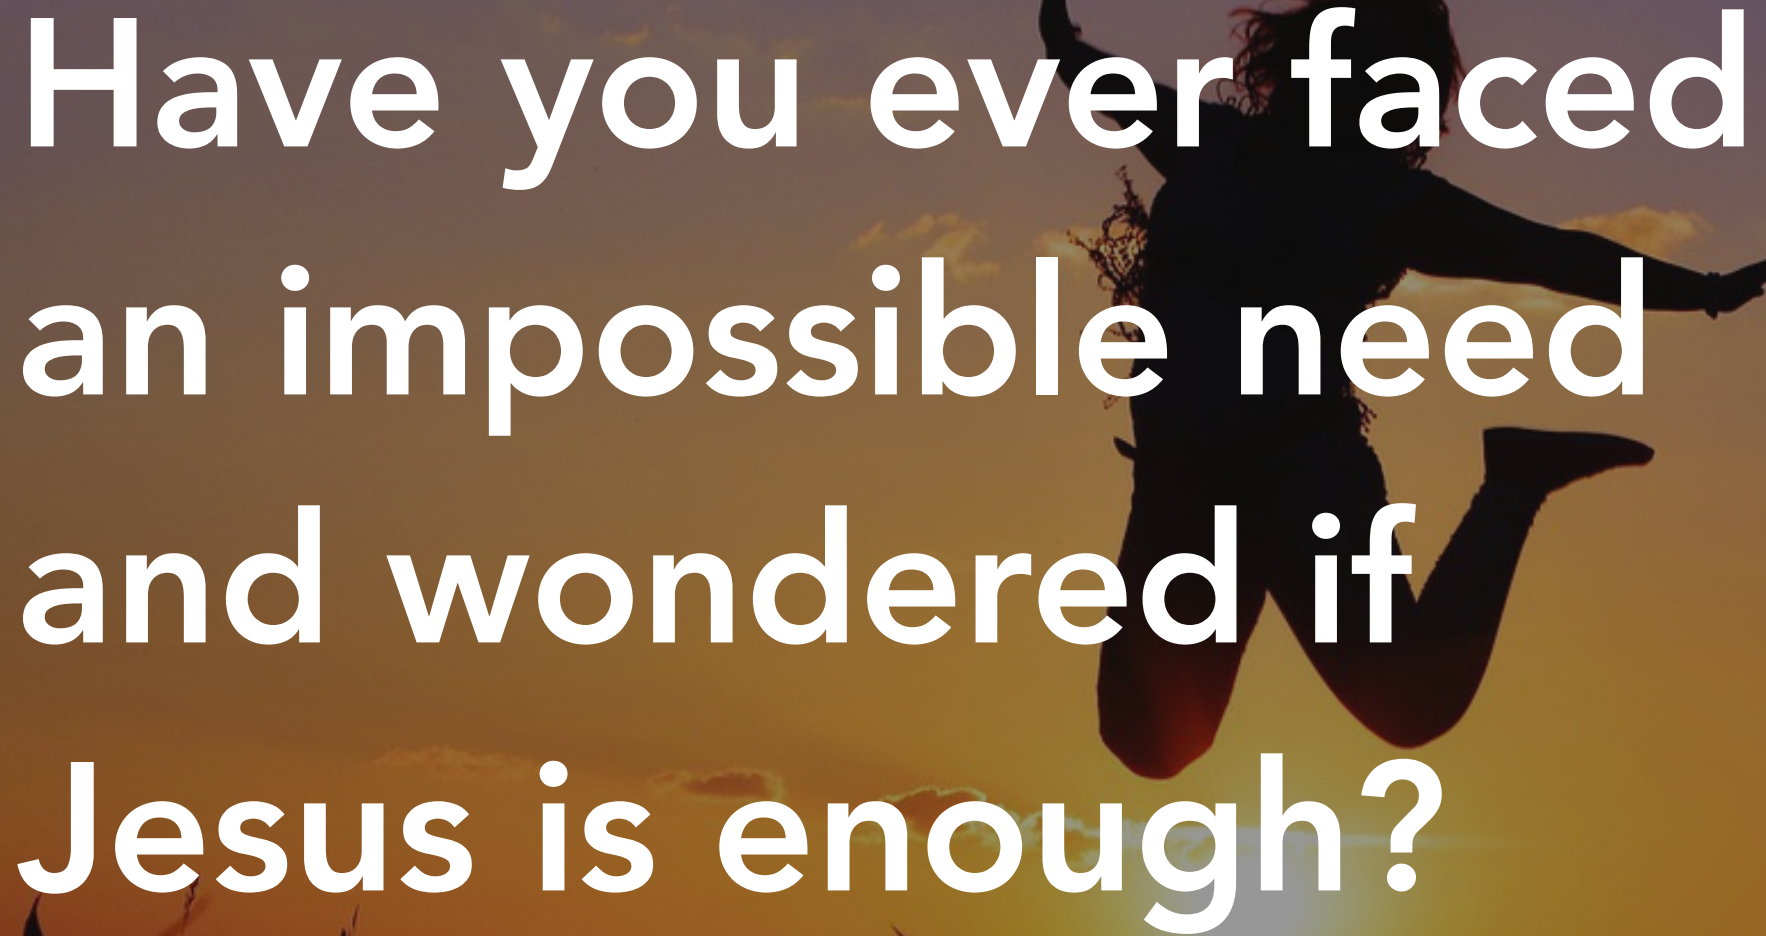

Don't Settle

For just provision.

John 6:5-13

Why Philip?

Have you ever faced an impossible need and wondered if Jesus is enough?

Jesus multiplies what is surrendered to Him.

Is Jesus the new Moses?

A silhouette of a person jumping joyfully against a sunset sky. The person is in the center-right of the frame, with arms outstretched and legs bent in mid-air. The sky is a gradient of orange and yellow, with some clouds. The overall mood is one of happiness and freedom.

Does Jesus provide us with what we need?

Or is Jesus what we need?

3. Don't Settle

For a reduced Jesus

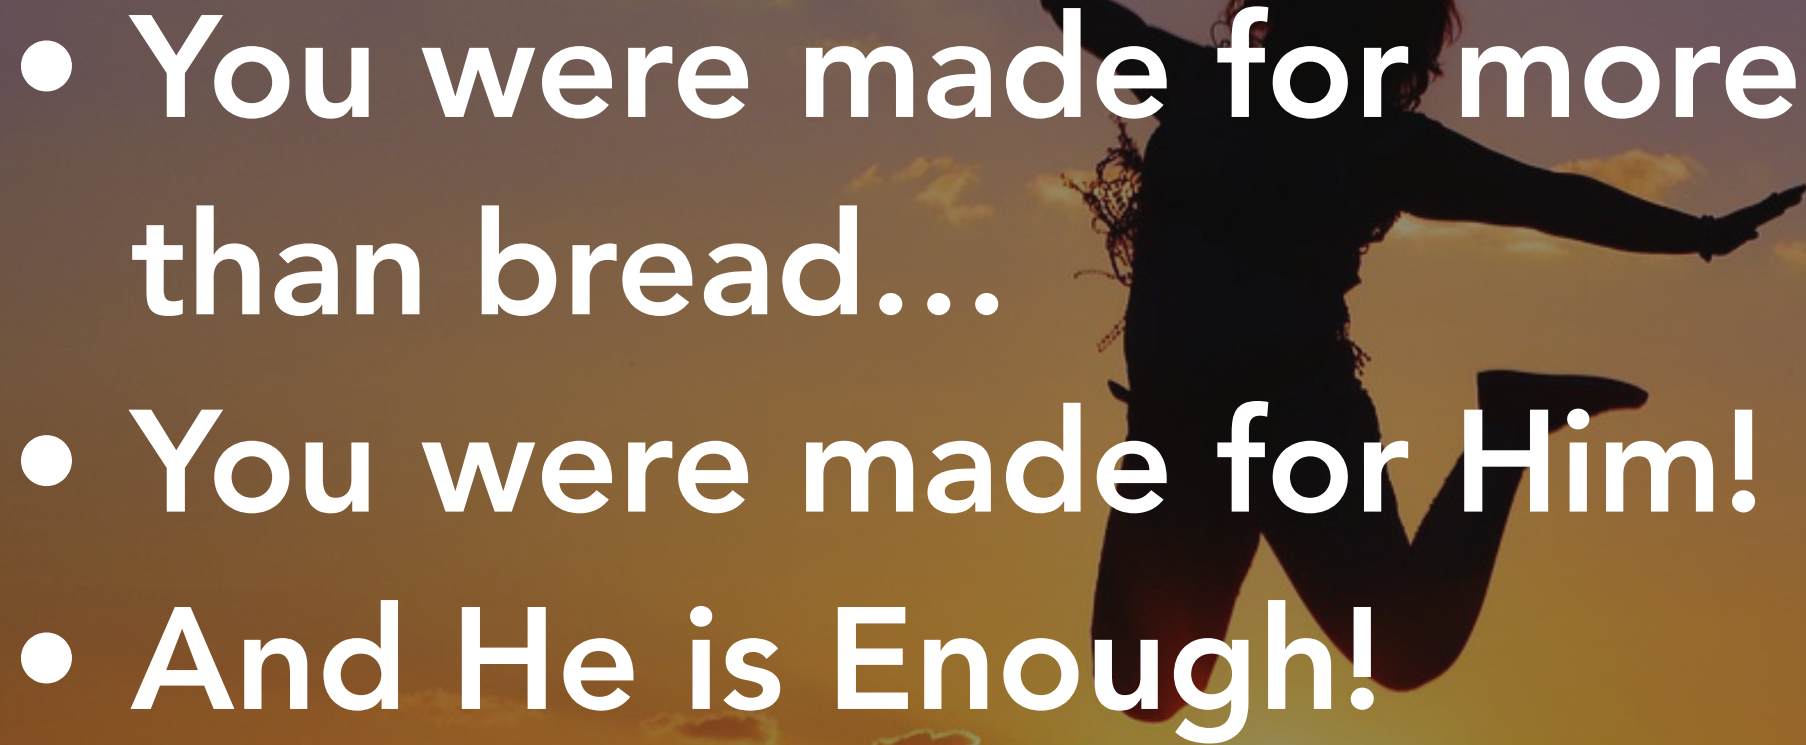

John 6:14-15

Is Jesus Moses 2.0?

Jesus the bread-King?

- You were made for more than bread...
 - You were made for Him!
 - And He is Enough!
